

Inclusion forums

Information on past forums and where to find more resources.

The PSC Inclusion Forums share knowledge and best practice to embed a culture of inclusion across the NSW public sector in line with our Belonging and Inclusion Strategy.

There are up to 4 forums per year. The next forum will be held in June 2024.

Our Belonging and Inclusion Library has all forum highlights, as well as other diversity & inclusion resources available to NSW public sector diversity & inclusion practitioners.

Check out the Belonging and Inclusion Library now →

Past forums

Leveraging lived experience - July 2024

The Forum explored practical ways to incorporate lived experience in program design and implementation, including:

- a keynote address from MindTribes CEO Div Pillay
- a panel discussion on Closing the Gap and driving customer and community outcomes
- a panel discussion with D&I practitioners, employee resource group Chairs and Div Pillay

Watch the highlights below

Employee Wellbeing – March 2024

In this forum, we heard from Georgie Harman, CEO of Beyond Blue on the importance of supporting employee wellbeing as a strategic priority in our workplaces.

We heard great insights from a wellbeing panel on how to build psychologically safe, inclusive, and healthy workplaces that inspire organisational change and contribute to an inclusive public sector.

We also heard employees share their lived experience of managing wellbeing, and how the intersectionality of our identities uniquely shapes our experiences.

Carers and Caring Responsibilities – August 2023

In this forum, we heard a keynote from Dr Rae Cooper and Dr Liz Hill from Sydney University Gender Equality in Working Life Research Initiative. They explored work and care in Australia, the architecture of gendered inequality at work and how care shapes workplace gender inequalities across the life course. They also explored gaps and policy levers, with a focus on flexible work.

We also heard great insights from a lived experience panel and a carers workplace support panel.

Watch the highlights below

Antiracism – April 2023

This forum aimed to equip diversity and inclusion practitioners with the knowledge and skills to advocate for anti-racism in their agencies and to apply the thinking to their existing inclusion and workforce management strategies.

Keynote speaker Mr Chin Tan, former Race Discrimination Commissioner from the Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC), spoke about the National Anti-Racism Framework and the importance of taking action against racism to create a safer and more inclusive workplace and society. Sector agencies shared their best practices and resource from the Australian Human Rights Commission “Racism. It Stops With Me” campaign were shared.

Watch the highlights below

Find out more

For more information about the Inclusion Forums please contact us.